

Learning Commons

The mission of the MISD Learning Commons is to ensure that students and staff are effective evaluators, users, and communicators of ideas and information, enabling them to be literate, life-long learners.

Bibliography Information

Check out these online bibliography tools that will help you automatically generate a works cited page!

- Bibme.org
- Easybib.com
- CitationMachine.net

Want to go more in depth and learn how to cite sources on your own or to check and see if the online generator is correct? Look at the MLA, APA, and Chicago style websites to get information on or purchase the latest manuals or FAQs.
